

ISRAR E HAQIQI

This is a very old book written by the great Sufi saint Hazrat Moinuddin Hasan Sanjari of Ajmer (1141-1236) the advice and discourses to his special caliph Khwaja Bakhtiar Kaki which were translated from Persian into the Urdu language and for the first time I have translated this book into English. This translation of the most ancient and celebrated Persian book on Sufism will, I hope, be found useful not only for the number of students familiar with the subject at first hand but also by many readers. In this magazine one another magazine Haft Maktubat (The seven letters) by Hadrat Khwaja Moinuddin Chisti is also added for the readers response for reading many secrets the spiritualism and as well as mystic knowledge in the light of the sayings of the last prophet of Allah and Quranic advises. This is a small magazine in which there are advice and instructions especially for a taleb (student) and it refers to a person who is committed to a Murshid (spiritual master) in a tariqa (spiritual path) of Sufism and is also known as a salik (Arabic: ??????). A mureed is an initiate into the mystic philosophy of Sufism, and all these details of advice by the great Sufi saint Khwaja Moinuddin Hasan Sanjari of Ajmare are included in this book. There are also some great achievements mentioned in this book which is not known to the general public published in a very interesting style, so readers will find great interest and attention in this.
