

War of the Angels

In 1976, Michael Mullen was writing a book about the horrendous sinking of the U.S.S. Indianapolis, based upon Top Secret papers released to him by President Gerald Ford. Every major publishing house in America clamored for his book, when suddenly, Mullen was visited by the Man on the Burial Shroud of Turin who told him, Do not write that (U.S.S. Indianapolis). Write this (War of the Angels). Scientists who proclaim the Shroud of Turin to be a fake are critically wrong. Not only is it the burial shroud of a man crucified 2000 years ago in Jerusalem, but that same man whose image is embedded on the cloth is still alive. Mullen was escorted by him numerous times to a vast Dark World. There he beheld angels from opposing forces battle. The Man on the Shroud told Mullen to write what he saw. Through the authors eyes you will: See the face and body of Jesus Christ See the face and body of the Dragon (Satan) See the Living Star of Bethlehem Patrol the celestial heavens with Archangel Michael Battle Satan and his armies of dark angels Visit the Bottomless Pit and its gruesome inhabitants Discover who murdered Pope John Paul I Learn who is paving the way for Satans return See Michael shout the start of World War III Be raptured to a Cloud World Witness Satan being cast into hell World Leaders prepare for the Antichrist, and to succeed, they make you believe that Satan is just a cartoon character in a funny red suit. But his existence is no joke. War of the Angels was written as commanded by the Man on the Shroud of Turin. It is a final warning. Take heed.
