

The Family of Imran (Keys to the Quran Book 2)

This eBook is Shaykh Fadhlalla Haeri's commentary on the third chapter of the Quran: The Family of Imran. Surat Ale-Imran is one of the most comprehensive and detailed chapters of the Qur'an. It demonstrates the meaning of hypocrisy, courage and belief, using the historical setting of the Battle of Uhud, one of the early Muslim campaigns, to show how people behave in different circumstances and justify their behavior. This chapter unveils truth and insight regarding the human self, society, this world and the Next Life. ABOUT SHAYKH FADHLALLA HAERI Shaykh Fadhlalla Haeri was born in Karbala, Iraq, a descendant of several generations of well-known and revered spiritual leaders. Educated in Europe and America, he founded a number of companies in the Middle East and worked as a consultant in the oil industry. He travelled extensively on a spiritual quest which led to his eventual rediscovery of the pure and original Islamic heritage of his birth. In 1980 he established the Zahra Trust, a charitable organization with centers in the USA, Britain and the Middle East, which makes traditional Islamic teachings more widely available through courses and publications, promotes the revival of traditional systems of healing and supports a variety of charitable programs. Shaykh Fadhlalla is currently engaged in lecturing and writing books and commentaries on the Holy Quran and related subjects, with particular emphasis on ethics, self-development and gnosis (irfan). In 2004, he established the Academy of Self Knowledge, which offers teachings on self knowledge and the Prophetic revealed path.
